

Linda Dickson

May 8, 1951 - January 14, 2024

Linda Louise Dickson, 73, of Milford, Connecticut, entered eternal rest on Sunday, January 14, 2024.

She transitioned peacefully with her family by her side at Yale New Haven Hospital. Linda was born on May 8, 1950, in Tarrytown, NY.

She was the oldest child to the late Charmaine Spears and Irving (Bingtoy) Spears.

The family relocated to Stamford, Connecticut, where Linda met her husband George Dickson, and attended Stamford High School. She was a multifaceted, talented woman who didn't waste any time utilizing her skills.

She was employed full-time as an accountant for a Stamford firm. She also worked for The NY Times and Stamford Advocate in addition to her full-time employment. Linda was a long-time Stamford resident until moving to Milford, Connecticut with her daughter. One of her passions was cooking as she managed her catering business.

Linda was a baptized Jehovah's Witness, and a family-oriented individual who enjoyed creating memorable moments with her loved ones. She was a remarkable woman who embodied strength and resilience while exuding positivity. Her home was a haven with open arms for family gatherings, where she especially enjoyed spending time baking with her grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her three sisters Charmaine Spears, Darlene Joyner, Michelle Robinson, and one brother Irving Spears Jr. She is survived by her husband George Dickson Sr., three sons George Dickson Jr. (Angelina), Jasone Dickson, Dewayne Dickson (Monique), and daughter Lucrecia Dickson (Thomas) four sisters Rita Spears, Nicole Robinson, Brittany Spears, and Akera Spears. Two brothers Derick Esaw and Maurice Spears.

She was a dedicated grandmother to 14 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.
