A message for Paul and his loving family. Looking through the pictures of Linda with my mother, Peggy and father, Bob in childhood, spending holidays and visits to nana and pop pop's house. It was the closest I have ever had to a family. The trips down route 95 with the change baskets where dad tried to beat the toll. Trips in my Sunday best on Easter. You ere the happy, silly, big sister and dad was your fill in dad that would have done any thing for you. Lately working on our project to share in photos our mutual family history is when we finally reconnected. Still the loving, giving cousin, the silly joker so willing to share how lucky she was to have Paul as her husband and so proud of her children and grandchildren.

The same giving, and caring for others. You started to help me through so very hard times. Linda, supportive I'm shocked you are gone, But I know you still feel all the love so many people have for you. I still have so many things to ask you, I turn call you and then remember I can't. Such memories, the ironing board kids table, Pop pop dancing and buzzing to the dial on the washing machine, Watching over Bobby, you could see what a great mother you would be and it came true. You and Paul raised a wonderful family. I honor of you, I am sending a novel, a habit we share. I'm sure Andy is depressed. To Paul, the years you spent with Linda, for me were just as giving, caring, and long lasting, she mentioned you always in our conversations. I am happy she had you to go through good times and bad. This is and will be some of the hardest years in your life. I feel for you and your family. I am deeply saddened. Like my father, Linda and my Aunt Patsy are the people n my life that I will grieve most. I cry for the all of you and what an impact you had on so many peoples lives. When your mom passed on, it was the first time I ever saw Uncle Bob (dad) cry. I know he would be devastated if he were here. I love you, miss you, and grateful to have had you in my life. Paul. love the wedding picture!, One thing to day to you. There is no such thing as the seven steps of grief, Linda is not in a better place. Every one grieves in their own way. Let it out, let it happen, don't hold it in. I love you and weather the storm. Love., Cathleen (Cathy)
