The last time I saw Timmy was years ago and that saddens my heart. Every summer we look forward traveling to Connecticut , that was our highlights while growing up being around our cousins. My deepest condolences to the family.

Theadeen and Family

Our deepest condolence for your loss. It is evident that Timmy was greatly loved by his friends and family. As you reflect on the memories you shared, may your hearts be comforted in God's promise found at John 6:40. It provides real hope of seeing Timmy again in the future.

“ From days at Saab of Greenwich/ Cadillac we had been friends we shared a lot of memories there. It wasn't until I was able to convince you to come here to Pepe Cadillac and we started all new ones . I'm am glad to have known and worked with such a good man all these years... You will be missed by myself and everyone here at Pepe Cadillac.
