Lorenzo Serino, known to his friends as “The Cuz”, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 1st after a fifteen-year, courageous battle with Lymphoma and Leukemia. He was 75.

He graduated from J.M. Wright Technical High School in 1963. He joined the BTJ Steamfitter Union, Local 777, in 1965 where he worked until he retired in 1999.

Lorenzo is survived by his heartbroken and loving wife, Jo-Ann Putzig Serino, and his three mourning children, John Serino and his wife Rachael of Brooklyn, NY, Tami Summerton and her husband Stephen of Greenwich, CT and Amy Serino of Brookfield, CT. He is also survived by his four adoring grandchildren; Natalie, Spencer, Ryan and Wyatt Summerton as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. He was predeceased by his brother Peppino Serino and sister Lucia Ricciardi.

Lorenzo had a contagious smile that would light up every room he walked into. He had many lifelong friends and was respected by everyone he met. His friends will remember him for always making the time to be present, his unintentional humor and his innate ability to speak to others with compassion and empathy. He had many passions including his fig trees, gardening, baseball (especially the Yankees), Ohio State football, antique cars and a great love of music, especially doowop. He will be remembered most for his devotion to his family, especially his wife of 44 years, who he respected and loved unconditionally. His heart also beat for his grandchildren who will always remember Grandpa's money tree and his hip dance moves.

“ I was so sadden to hear about Larry's passing. He would frequent our store (Trader Joe's Darien) every week and we would talk about everything from the old country, (my Italian grandparents were from Avellino not far from Caserta), to motorcycles, to fig trees. He gave me a cutting from one of his trees and it is growing beautifully!

Sincere condolences to his wife and the rest of his family of whom he often spoke. I will miss him and his old world charm.

“ He was just always so happy to see you !!! “Come in, have something to drink, a glass of wine? Something, have something..... sit down, eat, have something” and with all that, you got the gift of his presence and warm embracing smile!! His heart so huge ❤️.... his smile contagious.... an amazing dedicated husband, Father and friend . Larry was all that and more! Because when Larry was around, you forgot your troubles and found the time to laugh and enjoy! His life was full And he shared his happiness with everyone he came in contact with..... one of the last things I remember him saying to me “ Charlene, life is short... you have to enjoy it.... and I know Larry left us knowing he lived a happy and abundant life.....abundance of the heart! ❤️ You will be missed
