I knew this brother since I was a kid. We went to 183 together. I remember he wore a suit to gym class. I wish he was still here .

“ When I was younger, I always remember going to my grandma’s house in the Bronx and every time I stepped inside her place all I would hear is my Uncle Luther’s classic hip-hop music. One thing about my Uncle Luther is he loved his hip-hop and rap music and could no one tell him nothing! I would sometimes go into his room or just sit in the long hallway by his door, and listen to his music. One thing I can say about my Uncle is that he had great taste in music no matter what it was I was always vibing. My uncle Luther would always share his music and videos with me that he created as I got older. I was always happy to hear what he came up with because of his creativity. Our connection to music brought us a little closer together in a way. My uncle does not know it, but a lot of the music that I listen to now is because of him. And, for that I am truly grateful! This is never a goodbye, but a see you later Unc. (Blessed and Loved)

“ My Uncle Luther and I had so many memories together it’s hard to pick one. One of our recent moments together was last summer when the pandemic started, uncle luther came to the park with my two sons, fiancée and I to work out. He really enjoyed himself especially spending time with his great nephews. He always says that’s my little guys chocolate and vanilla 🥺 before he passed we was on the phone for a while and I told him I loved him and as always he says don’t worry bubbles i’m going to get out of here soon and when I do we gonna go out and party and we both started laughing. I’m going to miss you so much, this is still unreal for me! I love you Uncle Luther ❤️ S.I.P
Love always,
Your Bubbles and little guys

“ I remember when I was little how I'd detect when Uncle Luther was near grandmas apartment building when she lived in Patterson. I'd hear hip hop the music spilling out from his earphones and I'd hear him mimicking the rhymes of the artist. He loved music so much, that he managed to make several incredible tunes and rhymes of his own. This includes a track I remember Essence singing on sometime back in 2008/09. You will be missed Uncle Luther. RIP.
