Marco was born in Ecuador on August 21, 1984 to his father Marco Pozo and mother Victoria Mendoza.

He was intelligent, well mannered, sensitive, and overall a great human being. His passion for soccer and helping people led him to an active and interesting life.

As soon as Marco arrived to Stamford CT from Ecuador he progressed significantly. He was top student at Stamford High School as well as topped ranked soccer player. Leading him to play soccer and achieved his Bachelors in International Business at SCSU.
