

Marjorie Tamburri

June 3, 1936 - January 1, 2014

Marjorie "Marge" Tamburri, 77 years old of Stamford, Connecticut, died January 1, 2014 after a long illness. Marge was born on June 3, 1936 in Darien, CT, to the late Fred and Marjorie Wiley. Marge was predeceased by her husband Joseph Tamburri.

Marge worked for over 35 years at the Grade A Market in Shippan. She was an avid Yankee fan, Beach bum and loved to bake. Every summer you can find her at Club West Beach, sporting her much loved flip flops. Marge's biggest passion was spending time with her family. Marge never missed any of her grandchildren's sporting events, recitals, or school plays. Her grandchildren were the light of her life.

Marge is survived by her loving children Debra Tamburri, Joseph Tamburri and his wife Cindy, Kim Cooke and her husband Kevin, and Michael Tamburri. She is also survived by her loving grandchildren Joseph and Kaitlin Tamburri, Michelle and Kellie Cooke, Christopher and Victoria Wallace and Michael Tamburri, Jr. Marge is also survived by three great-grandchildren, Mia, Chase and Kaden, and her sister Sandy Carlson and her husband George of Lords Valley, PA., as well as by her nieces Sandy and Vicky.
