“ Martin’s son Benjamin Bellingeri would always tell me stories about his father and how strong his father was. He really fought hard for 22 months with his cancer diagnosis and surpassed the expectancy that the doctors originally gave him. Benjamin Bellingeri deeply loved his father and he shared many stories with us about him at work. Benjamin made sure to work really hard for certain accomplishments and prayed to God his father was able to see the milestones. Martin fought real hard and saw the accomplishments. He was an amazing man. My deepest condolences to the Bellingeri family.

“ Marty & I have been friends over fifty years ,we have always keep in touch and talked on the phone at least once a month. When we needed help on a hard call he was there even at two in the morning, His favorite saying was We can fix it and together we did 90 % of time , even if my thoughts were I doubt it . I will always remember that. God Bless you Marty .
