“ *Dear Steve, Stephen, and Markian,
Mary worked as a para-educator in my classroom for the majority of her years at Cloonan Middle School. She was an exceptionally hard worker, fully dedicating herself to helping both the staff and students in whatever ways she could. She never waited to be asked to do something but rather anticipated others' needs and sought out ways to assist. On a personal level, she was a dear friend to those of us who were blessed to work beside her. I am heartbroken by her passing and already miss her deeply. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with your family as you grieve this terrible loss.
With deepest sympathy, Lauren Oudheusden*

My deepest condolences to all. Mary always made me laugh, we shared things about our families and our health. I know she has been struggling with health issues for the past few years and my heart is truly broken to know she has passed. Her family was her greatest joy.

“ Marika’s kids at school used to send cards and packages to me in Iraq. When I came home, I visited her and the kids in uniform. The irony was that Marika was so grateful to me for coming, but it was my honor and pleasure to visit the children who were so thoughtful and who kept my spirits high. Marika was always so thoughtful and kind to me and my family because that’s the kind of person she was. May she rest in eternal peace and may her legacy be one of love, compassion, and friendship.

“ *I remember when Mary Victoria, as a baby, was brought home by her loving and grateful parents. Jean and John couldn’t have a conversation without mentioning something about their beautiful angel. And now, she is back in their arms. Although I didn’t know Mary Victoria as an adult, let me assure her loved ones that she has left the best of herself behind in each of you as you smile, laugh, and continue to share her love of life. “ Steve, Stephen and Markian, words cannot express my sadness for your loss. I have many wonderful, cherished memories of Mary and I attending many Zabavas in Yonkers, CYM, and Suzy-Q during our teenage and carefree years, as well as our time in school, traveling to Montreal, and gatherings with so many cherished friends and family over the many years. Mary, you may be gone from our sight, but never from our hearts. Rest with the angels. Eonia i Mnimi/Vichnaya Pamiat/Memory Eternal
