“ I met Mary over a year ago at Cummings. She was very lively, optimistic and a fine lady. Loved, loved having conversations with her about everything and anything. I would look forward to seeing her red car parked and catching up with her. Miss her a lot on my daily walks.

Though my time knowing her was short, she left a profound mark. She's now with our Lord, in a much better place.

My condolences to her family.

*Dear Cheryl and Family,
All of you are the legacy of love that Mrs.McIntosh cherished the most.
I hope that you find comfort in that and may time and happier memories soften the sharpest edges of your sorrow.
