

Maryann Murphy

January 3, 2016

Maryann Murphy of Stamford, Connecticut passed away at her home surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, January 3, 2016. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 11, 1931 to the late Kathleen and Frederick Bonhage. Maryann graduated from Greenwich High School and shortly thereafter married and started her family. She was a loving and caring mother and grandmother. Anyone who knew her would say she carried herself with grace and elegance along with a great sense of humor. Nothing made her happier than to be surrounded by her family. Maryann was a volunteer at The Arc, she was a print model and she also worked at the Ferguson Library. She worked at Murphy's Townhouse as one of the original waitresses to get the business going with her charm and quick wit. Maryann is survived by her brother, Frederick Bonhage and his wife, Peggy. Her children, Maureen Murphy-Kenefick, her husband Dr. Timothy Kenefick and her son Hugo Fueglein, Jr., Dawn Deehan and her husband George and their sons, Daniel and Timothy, Terry Murphy and his children, Melissa, James, his wife Julia and Mark, Jennifer Murphy Wikman and her husband Todd. One great granddaughter, Mackenzie Murphy. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. In addition to her late parents, Maryann was preceded in death by her daughter Kathleen, son James and ex-husband James Murphy. Visitation will be held Saturday, January 9th at the Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT from 11am to 12pm, with a prayer service to commence at 12pm. Interment will follow at Putnam Cemetery on Parsonage Road in Greenwich, CT. If you would like to leave an expression of sympathy for the family online, you may sign the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or visit the funeral home facebook page at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome to share memories with her family.
