“ My sincere condolences to Michael's family. I am shocked and saddened to learn of his passing. I was a client of Michael's since he first opened Hair in downtown Stamford. I left Stamford in 1983 yet to date have not found anyone who can hold a candle to Michael. He was a genius with a pair of shears and a blow dryer and will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I'm heartbroken to hear of Michael's passing. Michael was not only my hair stylist for 40 years, he was a dear friend - funny, kind, caring, a radiant smile that would light up a room.
We shared many fun times with Jill at the Knights of Columbus, dinners, St. Leo's fair, barbecues.
Gone way to soon. Love you. RIP Michael.

“ Michael knew the Savior. He knew grace. He lived life authentically
...he had a secret to share and shared it he did : Jesus is Lord for real right in the middle of our glaring imperfections. And oh how he loved and was delighted in Mariesa and those incredible grandchildren. I know. He showed me thousands of pictures of them...laughing and smiling at each one . Which made it a pleasure
...he marked my life. Thankful

“ "Hey Pal!" I can still, and always will, hear you greet me with that loud, joyful voice. Next would come the wrap-around hug and kiss on the cheek. Its the way you lived your life - loud, joyful and always reaching out to others. You are gone way too soon, but your struggles are forever gone and you see The One you loved so much. My biggest regret is we fell out of touch this past year, and that is making this that much harder. But, I know we will hug again and I'll be able to say, "Hey Pal! I'm so sorry...."

“ Michael was my very best hair stylist for many years until I moved out of the area. A hair appointment with Michael was always something to look forward to. Not only would my hair look so much better when I left, Michael's sense of humor and stories were always fun and added to my happy mood after a fresh haircut. RIP Michael, you were the best!

“ to the dear family of Michael Jordon. i am so sorry for your loss. although i have not seen Michael in many many years, i count him as one of a few people in my lifetime who instilled in me an acceptance of myself. it was when he worked at 'hair' on bedford st in stamford and i was a young gangling woman so intimidated by the 'in' people of that time. as i sat in the waiting area to meet the stylist, i wanted to run. but then i met Michael Jordon who had such a way about him; he never lost that presence. to this day, as i blow dry my own hair, i flip my head over to bring fullness to my "fine" (not 'thin' as my mother would say) hair. i left the salon feeling beautiful that first day. everyone should be able to feel beautiful no matter their 'condition'. and Michael Jordon had that gift to make it happen. rest in peace Michael.

“ I have known Michael for most of my life. He has cut my hair for more than 40 years - starting at 'Hair' on Bedford Street. I have followed him to Darien, to Stamford, and back to Darien. We even became neighbors off of High Ridge - where he occasionally cut my hair on his deck. I am so saddened to hear this news; this is such a loss. He was a good, kind, funny, loving person. My deepest sympathy to Mariesa, Lynn, Brooke, and Jordan (how he loved those twins!). My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Maureen Ellen

“ I met Michael at Church of the Apostles where we both attended. Michael had a major operation which created difficulties in swallowing for a long period post surgery. I was in the midst of multiple surgeries for a joint disease so we both commiserated with each other. But Michael showed me how to deal with adversity, to be in pain and to still outwardly show his love of Jesus. He met you with a hug and hearty laugh while having a full plate of physical issues. He left our church so he could attend church with his dad. I have missed him since and will now miss him until we meet again where there is no more pain, no more tears. My deepest condolences to his family. He was a sweet man. Kevin Dillon.
