It is difficult to express my sadness at Molly's passing. Certainly she was an inspiration to all who had the priviledge to have known her. “ Dear Orgera Family,After 101 years of living Molly finally closed her eyes for the last time. She was such a beautiful, remarkable lady. Her zest for life and her family was what kept her going. I first met Molly when as I teenager I worked at Gimbels Department Store, and beautiful Molly was the first person you would see when you entered the store. As the years went on Ernie and Joyce became some of our best friends and we got to know Molly all over again. She didn't want to die because she said her kids still need her. We got such a chuckle over that. She leaves behind a great legacy. Rest in peach Molly; you've earned it.Love,
