“ Cioci Nancy was a special member of our family and the warmth in our holidays, and she will be dearly missed by me and my mom. We will always remember her deep faith in God, and her love, excitement and joy for life and for always being there to lend a helping hand and listening ear in all matters, whether great or small. It is a wonder of how there was enough time in her short 77 years to have touched and inspired so many hearts! Cioci Nancy, for sure we will think of you as the remembrance of your singing our birthday greetings echoes through February and March or when we see daffodils blooming in springtime or hear a robin's song and when we see beautifully decorated eggs and traditional foods blessed for the Easter celebration. We will recall moments on your deck celebrating special times with red, white and blue cakes for Uncle John and all the special summer treats. We will give thanks for you when sitting at a bountiful Thanksgiving table knowing how you made that day so special with the whimsical turkey and all the trimmings. When the church bells toll at midnight to bring in our Christmas, we'll think of how magical and festive it was to celebrate together under your sparkling tree and enjoy Ambrosia and the best strawberry cheesecake. Surely we will miss you, always. As much as Nancy took a part of us with her when she left this earth for her eternal home in heaven, she leaves a part of her in each of our hearts so we, in essence, are made whole again in the blessing of having known and shared life with her. That is something that we can all cherish forever. Love from your niece Elizabeth (Liz) and Sister-in-Law Estelle (Stasia) McCauley

“ My deepest sympathy on the loss of your Mother. Nancy and I started school together in kindergarten and graduated together from Sacred Heart Academy. I just visited with her at our 60th reunion and we reminisced about how we had a special test to be moved to first grade because we were only turning 5 in March in kindergarten. She was a lovely person and I will remember her always. My prayers are with you.
