

Nicholas P. Agneto, Jr.

May 30, 1940 - February 1, 2026

Nicholas P. Agneto, Jr., born May 30, 1940, in Greenwich, Connecticut, to Nicholas P. Agneto, Sr. and Mildred (Davidson) Agneto, lived a fruitful and meaningful life. He passed away peacefully on February 1, 2026, surrounded by his family, with a smile on his face as he danced home to the Lord.

Nick is survived by the love of his life, his “Bubbs”, Geraldine Sacco Agneto. He was a devoted father to his son, Nicholas P. Agneto III and his wife, Kristen, and to his daughter, Dina Ann MacDougall and her husband, Scott. He was predeceased by his son, Philip Agneto, whom he carried in his heart always. He is also survived by his sister, Charlotte Perry of Bristol, New Hampshire, as well as seven grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews who loved him dearly.

Nicholas was truly a jack of all trades, both by skill and by spirit. Over the years, he worked as a Sealtest milkman, modeled for the Ford Agency, waited tables at Pellicci’s, where he met the love of his life, Geraldine, built businesses as an Amway IBO and serial entrepreneur, and served with compassion as a para-educator to children with special needs. Especially Kris Buchetto and Emily Person. Yet, as meaningful as these roles were, his most important work began around the age of fifty, when he encountered Jesus Christ in a life-changing way. From that moment on, Nicholas devoted himself to preaching the Gospel, sharing his faith boldly and lovingly, and pointing others to the hope he himself had found. He always shared his favorite scripture, Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart. And do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Those who knew Nick, knew they had a friend, a father, a brother, and a mentor, a real man who loved unconditionally. No matter who you were or where you came from, you were family to him. There were two times each year when everyone knew exactly where to find him. The first was his favorite place on earth, during the last week of July at Glen Brook Farm in the Catskills. The second, at Christmastime, sharing His love at the Christmas tree lot, where he was known by all simply as "St. Nick."

Visitation will be held from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Monday, February 9, at Bethany Church, 2 Scofieldtown Road, Stamford, Connecticut 06903. A Memorial Service celebrating Nicholas's life will be held on Tuesday, February 10, at 11:00 AM, also at Bethany Church.

If you wish to make a remembrance for the family, you may sign the family guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

Previous Events

Visitation

FEB 9. 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

Bethany Church
2 Scofieldtown Road
Stamford, CT 06903

Celebration of Life

FEB 10. 11:00 AM (ET)

Bethany Church
2 Scofieldtown Road
Stamford, CT 06903

Tribute Wall

MC

“ Michael C. purchased a sympathy card for the family of Nicholas P. Agneto, Jr..

Michael C. - February 10 at 03:10 PM

MP

“ Dear Gerry and Family,

Deepest condolences on your loss. Thoughts, prayers and love for all.

With Sympathy,

Michael, Robin, Anthony and Nicholas Portanova

Michael Portanova - February 10 at 09:15 AM

RM

“ Dear Gerry and family. So very sorry for your loss. He will be in my prayers.

Rosemary Masone

Rosemary Masone - February 09 at 09:24 PM

MV

“ Sending so much love to the Agneto family and everyone touched by him. I'll always remember him and Mrs. Agneto dancing together, smiling and laughing, a beautiful example of love. May he rest in peace.

Melissa Viggiano - February 08 at 10:21 AM

TM

“ Nick, I will always remember your warm and generous spirit. Thank you for all you have given to those you have touched throughout your caring life. Affectionately, Theresa Magistro

Theresa Magistro - February 07 at 06:07 PM

“ Having Papa Agneto in our lives has truly been a blessing. Not only because he was a man of Faith and walked the walk... but also because he shared his love for God and life with others, whether you were immediate family or not.

The Agnetos took me in and embraced me when I was young and I was going through some dark times. They opened their home and their hearts to me, and showed me “Family love,” can overcome any obstacle life may place on you.

I recall the Agnetos taking me along to their summer camp up in the Catskills, New York. Boy how much fun did I have with them... watching the stars and moon at night, and talking teenage gossip and junk by the camp fire. I need to add, Papa Agneto covered all my expenses, including room, board, and meals. What a man, what a person... what a Dad!!!

Papa Agneto also networked me to one of the greatest jobs I ever had as a teen... working as a gas attendant at Dom's Amoco on Hope Street in Stamford, Connecticut. Both Papa Agneto and Dom were great paternal influencers, and looked after the welfare of all young adults they interacted with.

I really enjoyed the Holidays with Papa Agneto and Dom. Dom would gift his workers at the gas station with free turkeys for Thanksgiving, and Papa Agneto would gift us with free Christmas trees, which made Papa Agneto a Holiday Icon at Dom's gas station. Everyone that knew Papa Agneto, knew they will get a great tree, at a great low price. Papa Agneto literally made everyone's Holiday with his cheer, his joy, and his lovable and infectious smile.

Papa Agneto's positive influence in my life is only a sliver of how I can describe him. He laid one of the foundations of why I am the man I am today. I've been a public servant since 19 years old, and I've embraced kids and young adults in my life, whether they were immediately family or not. Just the way Papa Agneto did with me and others.

Thank you Papa Agneto for gifting me far more than just great memories and experiences... thank you for gifting me an additional Mom... Mama Agneto, a brother, Nick... and a sister, Dina. Papa Agneto raised some great kids that have become great adults... and they too are raising great families of their own.

Pap Agneto leaves a legacy that extends beyond the Famiglia Agneto... it extends with families and friends far beyond the 203 area code. God bless you Papa Agneto and keep smiling upon us from the Heavens above.

Frank B.

Frankie Bee - February 07 at 08:01 AM

AR

“ What a gift What an Honor. To see the character of a REAL MAN..... A humble servant!

During His last days it was I that was Blessed to be in his presence! Witnessing the pinnacle gift that's to flow from the life of a "Believer" LOVE!!!!

It was present in the room - of His beautiful face - in his amazing humor And most as He would raise his hand with a pouring of gratitude!

One Day we will share together a moment of Eternity

Jesus and His GRANDIOSE LOVE that was poured out!

Alexander Rojas - February 06 at 10:13 PM

KV

“ Papa Agneto how I would always call him. He truly was the best, always welcoming, always loving and the best of all he truly made you feel that he loved Jesus and that Jesus was love. I will miss him on Sundays , I will walk into the sanctuary give him a kiss in the forehead right before worship. My papa Agneto I love you ☐

Kathy Valentine - February 04 at 05:56 PM

“ Much love to the family and friends of Nick Agneto. I remember him fondly going back to my days with the Scouts. He was a great man who gave so much love to the world and will be truly missed.

Chris Trudeau - February 04 at 05:28 PM

CK

“ Will always remember your smile & hugs as we pulled up to GBF, the station wagon full of fun , and your voice on the bull horn. You gave so much of yourself and I will be forever grateful to have had you in my life for so long. Love, The Koller family

Christine Koller - February 04 at 05:06 PM

TP

I will never forget what a special relationship you had with my son, Kristopher, you were his bright light for sure! You shared the same birthday and were a lot alike you loved making people happy and having a fun time! Always in my heart! Love, Toni Buchetto Perretta

Toni Buchetto Perretta - February 04 at 05:18 PM

TD

Such a humble and welcoming man of God. He was always a bright light that I loved making sure we greeted each and every time entering the sanctuary. Knowing him for years prior he demonstrated how he stood on his faith with the Lord 24/7. God bless and comfort the entire family.

Trevor Delmore - February 05 at 04:24 PM

BF

*Dear Geraldine (Gerry), My sincerest sympathy on the passing of your beloved Nick. I know he loved Jesus and we know he was welcomed with opened arms. I'll be holding you and your family up in prayer as I know he'll be dearly missed. I'm living in California now and would be there in person to hug you and pay my respects to all.
With Sincerest Sympathy, Hugs, and Love -
Cousin Barbara Ferullo*

Barbara Ferullo - February 05 at 08:43 PM