

Norman Masri

July 12, 1931 - April 18, 2025

Norman Masri, 94, beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, husband, and partner, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2025, in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Born on July 12, 1930, in Baghdad, Iraq, Norman was the eldest of four children. He attended The Milford School in Connecticut before earning both his undergraduate degree and MBA from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

Norman spent his professional life as a stockbroker, beginning his career at Shearson Loeb Rhodes, later working at Lehman Brothers, and ultimately retiring from Citibank in 2009.

Beyond his career, Norman had a deep passion for life. He was an accomplished skier, taking his final trip out west at the age of 91. He also had a lifelong love of classical music, nature, gardening, travel, and languages.

He is survived by his two daughters, Gayle (Barry) and Rose (Scott); four grandchildren, Jeremy (Rachel), Nicole (Connor), Gillian, and Spencer; and his great-granddaughter, Naomi (daughter of Jeremy and Rachel). He is also survived by his devoted partner, Barbara, and his brother, Raymond (Colleen).

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made in Norman's memory to the following organizations: FIDF at www.fidf.org or United Hazalah at <https://israelrescue.org/donate/> .

If you wish to make an online remembrance for the family, you may sign the family guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome .

Periwinkle was the name of a beautiful ski trail at Mad River Glen. The Periwinkle candle was chosen to honor of Norman and his love of skiing at Mad River and the White Plains Ski Club. Norman was a wonderful person and I always remember his huge personality and smile who brought joy to everyone. Blessed be the True Judge. May he rest in peace, and may his memory be a blessing. I am sorry for your loss.
