“ Per's intellect was matched by his wonderful, caring, warm, embracing and accepting personality. I had the pleasure of working with Per for 7 years at NYNEX and can only say that they were the happiest years of my working life. He created memos at the speed of light and consummated deals that were way beyond the rest of us mere mortals. He was gracious, never flustered, always patient and never held his undeniably superlative quantitative skills over the rest of us.

We had many opportunities to travel together to England and once to Warsaw. His fun loving nature, intelligence, and love of ale made every trip a pleasure.

To Jennifer and all the children, please know that he gave so much to so many of us and asked nothing in return. A kind gentle soul who touched those around him and made every working environment a better place.

“ First my thoughts and prayers are with Per’s family after such a sudden loss. I worked with Per for 5 of my 6 years at GE Capital. When I started at GE the Market Risk team consisted of Per, Li and myself! I leaned on Per heavily to help me navigate the organization to build a new independent risk function. I always appreciated Per’s thoughtfulness and keen intellect. I valued in particular how he challenged ideas and proposals, making for a stronger end product. Per was also a friend who I could discuss sensitive matters with in trust. He also was a generous personality who truly cared about others and valued his family above all.

With Deepest Sympathies

“ I worked with Per for many years at GE Treasury and couldn't believe that i met the big brother of Mats (my fraternity brother at Lehigh. ) What a small world. Per always had the patience and time to teach me about hedging and long term funding when i was new to the company, and I remember him fondly for his intelligence and quick wit.

My condolences to his family on their loss. May your memories of Per sustain you and bring a smile to your heart during this difficult and sad time. My thoughts and prayers go out to you.

“ While I don't have one particular memory of Per that I could share during my 18+ years working with him. It was just the day to day happenings of the Stahlkrantz family life that we were able to laugh about. OK, maybe I laughed more than he did. I was there for everything from putting his beautiful little girl on the school bus, hot sauce on his eggs, camps, football games, to girlfriends, car repairs, college search, a dog he was not terribly thrilled with and building the house. My memories of Per will always be something that I will treasure with fondness and amusement. I know he is on a sailboat smiling and proud while having a cold beverage just watching the amazing adults you all have become. Please find comfort in your wonderful memories of your Dad, know that he hasn't left you, he will live forever in your heart, you are his most important legacy. Know that he will continue to guide you with the quiet patience and tolerance he portrayed.

With deepest sympathy,

“ I first met Per in 1999 through work and we remained friends even after GE spun my company off in a IPO. Just sixty days ago he crewed for me, sailing a sailboat from Portland to Seattle. He was not well on this trip, some of it I wrote off to the sea state, but it was clear that something was seriously not right. When we parted in Seattle I urged him to go home and get very proactive about his health. I chose not remember Per as I last saw him, but rather the memory I choose to lock into my mind is that of this Giant Swede jumping off a cornice into waist deep powder and skiing down a steep bowl on Niseko Mountian, Hokkaido, Japan in 2000. If I had not seen it with my own eyes, I would never have believed a man that big could be so graceful. On that day he was poetry in motion. Go in peace my friend. Bob McCorkle

“ I have worked with Per for over 10 Yrs. Distinctly remember some beautiful family pictures in his office especially the one in a blue outfit with his kids. He used to often talk about his ski vacation every winter. Per was an amazingly nice person very calm, caring and helpful. Still can't believe he is not amidst us.

You will be fondly missed Per, RIP !

My prayers and condolences to your family and friends
