“ My sincere sympathy to the Gentile Family:

Ray was a member of the boys of "56" a group of Stamford High School graduates who have remained close friends for seventy years. Never one to complain, Ray went about his life being a good father and a faithful Catholic. His faith never wavered despite having survived the loss of two wives and two children.

Ray served his country with honor. Upon his discharge Ray, in addition to raising a beautiful family turned to his second love playing Golf. He was a permanent fixture at the Hubbard Heights Golf course. If Ray wasn't playing, he could be found tutoring golfers of lesser ability. Through the years Ray would be a runner up or in the top five golfers who would compete for the City Championship. I don't recall the year but I'm pretty certain Ray won the City Championship, maybe more than once.

Ray was a Cancer Survivor. He fought the illness for many years. There were times when Ray's cancer would go into remission allowing all of his friends to appreciate his sense of humor and good nature.

Ray will be missed, may he rest in peace.
