“ Our deepest condolences to Joann and the entire family.
Bob has taken care of my family since the eighties, always helping, honest, fair, hard working and pleasant to be around.
I would always enjoy talking with him when picking up my car or just stopping by to say hello to him.
Bob's shop was the way they use to be, should be and there never will be another one like it.
Everyone will deeply miss him.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Joann Librandi and all of the Librandi family. Bob Librandi was a very special person. He treated all his customers like we were family; he was fair and abundantly honest. You knew that when Bob told you there was a problem with your vehicle--he was giving you an extremely well experienced opinion, one that was accurate and essential. I remember the first time I met Bob...I had a flat just off the Merritt Parkway on Long Ridge. Having been told by a few that Bob was very experienced and honest I drove the car to the station. Bob helped unload tons of real estate signs and related items from the trunk to locate the "spare" and then he ordered the new tire. The next day he uploaded the new tire and I was astounded at how fair his price was for all that effort.

As a local Realtor, I created a list of preferred services in the Stamford/Greenwich/Norwalk areas that I provide to all incoming purchasing clients. Bob's information was on that list and clients would call me constantly to thank me for sending them to Bob--as he gave them the best service--and usually became friends with many who came to know him.

But, Bob was so much more than the owner of a station and mechanics service. He was incredibly intelligent, quietly very opinionated, had a gentle but direct sense of humor and he was very devoted to the needs and concerns of his family. He was always concerned about everyone's health and well being all the while he had been suffering for a number of years with many significant health issues. He was interested in so many things but especially enjoyed his antique cars.

Bob.....you will be so very missed by so many who liked you, loved you and respected you for the true gentleman you were always. Thinking of you and your family at this difficult time.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Bob's passing. He was so special & I have many memories of him. To this day, I still think of him & smile when I pull into a gas station, because he always told me that I need to check my oil every time I get gas! This of course was after my engine was killed because I had driven it without oil. I'm in trouble now that he'll be able to see that I haven't always followed that advice. God bless to Joann, Bobby, Dave & all of the Librandi family. He will be missed & my prayers are with all of you.
