“ Dear Barb and Gary and your extended families- I was so saddened to hear of Robert’s passing. The few times I met him I always enjoyed his company. He was sweet and a gentleman. I know your mom and dad are with him now and they are all watching after you. Sending you all lots of love and prayers during this very sad time.

“ I did not know Robert that I can recall.I stumbled on and read his obituary. My 56 yr old brother also was in a coma and has a TBI he received after a vehicle accident 23 years ago in Greenwich. I somewhat know what he and the family have been through. May Robert rest in peace.
