“ I met Robert almost 50 years ago at Alliance College. He was a very kind and gentle man. For years he and I along with 2 other friends from college would take a vacation together every year. It didn't matter where we went, we always had fun. We all became like family. Family doesn't just mean a blood connection, family also means a heart connection. He fought the good fight and has earned his eternal peace. I love you Robert and I will miss him forever.
