

Robert A. Langenhan

January 17, 1924 - August 1, 2021

Robert Allen Langenhan of Stamford Connecticut passed away August 1, 2021 at the age of 97. He was a resident of the Edgehill Retirement Community of Stamford.

Bob was born in Lakewood Cleveland Ohio. His father Erich Mylius "Pete" Langenhan passed at a young age during the Great Depression. His mother Lucille and her three sons, Robert, John and Eugene endured through the hard times. All becoming successful family and hard-working men. Gentlemen to the core.

Robert is survived by his wife of 68 years June (Carr) Langenhan and their two children; Robert J. Langenhan (son), and wife Debra from St Petersburg Florida with their children Monica Williscroft, Gay le Tindle and Diane Valentine and Susan (Langenhan) Husta (daughter) and her husband Bruce from Marlborough Connecticut and their children Christopher, Robert, and Gregory Husta. Along with brother Eugene Langenhan from Hilton Head SC and sister Lois Ditata from Parma Ohio. He leaves five great grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his parents Erich M "Pete" and Lucille Langenhan, his brother John Langenhan and his Stepfather William Dute and stepsister Diane Dute.

Bob attended Miami University of Ohio where he graduated Cum Laude with a BS in business in 1949. He married his beautiful wife June from Cleveland also on March 5, 1953 in Brussels; Belgium while working for Arthur Anderson accounting firm. After a year or so of overseas work they returned to America and eventually made their home in Stamford, a 60-year resident.

In order to become involved and give back to his Community. Bob became an environmentalist and preservationist by serving on the boards of the Environmental Council of Stamford, The North Stamford Association, The Stamford Historical Society and the Stamford Tree Foundation.

Upon his retirement, Bob became involved in groups who served people of the community. He was a member of the Tax Consulting for the Elderly program of AARP/IRS and provided financial expertise to the United Fund. Bob also served as the Chairman of Learning in Retirement of Stamford. He and his wife were both very involved in this Program.

Bob enjoyed his time volunteering with the American Red Cross Stamford Chapter for over 13 years with their blood drives. Also Bob and June were very active members of the First Presbyterian Church of Stamford for many years.

Bob and his wife loved traveling throughout the world in their retirement years, always reflecting back to so many miles and so many smiles.

There will be a graveside memorial on Thursday, August 12, 2021 at 11:30am at Long Ridge Union Cemetery at 156 Erskine Rd Stamford.

In lieu of flowers please send donations to First Presbyterian Church, 1101 Bedford St., Stamford CT 06905.

“ *Dear June,
It was my absolute honor to have worked for Bob for so many years at Avco. He was the best boss a young gal could ever hope for. I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere and warm condolences.
