“ I grew up with Ron and his wife Diane. I lived next door and Ron was the best and so saddened to hear that he passed away. I remember when my mom passed away, they sent over some food. I pray that he's at peace and much love to the family as I'm sure he is missed every day.

“ Aunt Diane and family, so sorry to hear of Uncle Ronnie's passing. He always made me feel welcome in your home, I enjoyed our conversation on the phone. He always had a big smile and a bear hug . I remember back in the day at Mimis home in Westhampton having a cook out hanging out with the horses and of course playing music. It was magic. Sending Peace, Light, respect and love. “ Diane LaRoche and family
Not only was he a great rug man but he was also a great entertainer. He was always smiling and made us laugh. It was always a fun time when he and Ronnie Jr., and Duke would show up at our house. May his love for you and his family guide you through this most saddest of times.
