I have many nice memories of Aunt Rose as a child when she was married to my Uncle Al Izzo. She was always fun and gracious. May she rest in peace. She is finally reunited with my cousin and her son Mark Izzo who passed away at birth. We had been in contact over the years and I will miss her telling family stories. RIP

“ Klinka, Stan and the rest of Rose's family, this photo captures the essence of this sweetheart of a woman! I had the pleasure and spending some wonderful moments with her at Roberta & Ray's, and just this summer with Roberta, Klinka and Stan down at The Crabshell so she could be down by the water...a beautiful day. Thank you for being the wonderful woman you were to me, Eileen
