

RuthAnn Honcz

October 22, 1934 - October 22, 2024

RuthAnn Honcz passed away peacefully in her home on her 90th birthday, October 22, 2024, surrounded by her family. RuthAnn led an active and engaged life up until shortly before her death from cancer. Born and raised in Worthington, Ohio, she was the daughter of Ruth (Scobie) Mackay and William Mackay.

RuthAnn earned her undergraduate degree from The Ohio State University, Columbus. As a young married mother with three small children, she worked as a dental hygienist and then became a full-time homemaker. During her forty years living in the Greenwich/Stamford area, she volunteered on committees for local organizations, including the Woman's Club of Greenwich. RuthAnn was an avid bridge player, competing in bridge tournaments in the greater Stamford area, and enjoyed working in her garden.

She loved her family and was a devoted grandmother. She is survived by her daughters Alice Neiler and Cynthia Rotell and two grandchildren. RuthAnn was preceded in death by her husband, Henry Honcz, and her youngest daughter, Lisa Rotell. Special thanks to Endurance Home Care and Visiting Nurse and Hospice of Fairfield County for their compassion and care.

Services were private.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was great friends with my mom, Linda Riley, and I always enjoyed her visits to Worthington. Many times she would stay at my parent's house. She would loyally check in via phone on how my parents were doing. In the last year (after my father's passing), I would call her to check in on how RuthAnn was doing. I always enjoyed speaking with her and she was so proud of her family. I will miss speaking with her - it was always entertaining and sometimes lively. She was a wonderful person and I am sorry for your loss. Anne Riley, Worthington, OH
