“ Beautiful Sharron,
I will never forget your beautiful smile, warm and gracious heart and wisdom.
I admired your dedication to our profession. Even when you were not feeling well, you would never complain. You were truly concerned about others well being.
Just know we will always welcome Rylie into our hearts and home. We will be there for her.
You should be one proud momma!
I swear Teddy and Rylie will rule the world!
Below are pictures of the kids.
Such fond memories. Pictures of the dynamic duo.
You are dearly missed.
Sweet, kind and courageous woman💕💕

“ Sharron, you were always full of life and always lived life to the fullest! My memories of NY Hospital when we first became nurses is forever treasured in my heart. God Bless my friend “The tears that dampen our eyes in times of mourning are tears of homesickness , tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they “

“ You gave me my first coach purse, took me to get my ears pierced, taught me how to bargain at a garage sale and most importantly to live life to the fullest. I will miss our conversations, our fun and our shopping adventures.

“ *Precious Mother & Daughter moment at my wedding, Sharron adding a touch of sparkle to Rylie as we got ready to head over to the church. Rylie was one of our flower girls.
Sharron was a very special person and very present in my life, she radiated warmth, compassion and courage. She was one of my favorite people, she was extremely uplifting and very supportive. She was a shoulder to cry on, arms for big hugs, a smile to light up your day. She was smart and beautiful and fun. She was my friend and I loved her.*

“ Sharron was a true light in our world! No matter what difficult treatment she was enduring, Sharon always lit up the hospital room with her beautiful smile and loving questions-usually inquiring about the welfare of others . She truly cared for all and her compassion shown forth. Each time I light candles in 2019, I will remember Sharron in all her radiance.

“ I can't believe she won't come up the stairs and into the yoga studio again. This gentle soul always had a thoughtful word, even in the midst of challenge. Sometimes you meet one of those rare people who make you a better person for having known them—she was one of them. My deepest condolences to Michael and Rylie.
