“ So Many memories growing up with Aunt Sophie and Uncle Peter . I will cherish all the great memories which helped me after my grandmother passed, her sister Stephanie. And my Grandfather Henry. Xo missed them all, . I am grateful to them all and thank them for what I have become today. I'll never forget the times we shared, The Cruise with Aunt Sophie and my Mom to Bermuda, or the sleep oversight Stamford , or the big Polish Christmas dinners with everyone! Swimming at the Marriott, Polish Parades in NYC , or Polish dance parties with the famous bands or orchestras. BIGGEST heart for supporting family , helping family and supporting us all, or sending Boxes to Poland to help others. 102 years of Caring, for us All, and also keeping people safe in Stamford as she worked for the Health department for half her Life . IF anyone deserves a proper thank you its her, if i could give her a life time achievement award I would give it to My Aunt Sophie ! Thanks for the memories and teachings through my life. I love you Aunt Sophie ❤️ ! Xo
