“ To Eddie, Richie, Joey, and Tom,This is from Betsy, the girl next door Stella was a big part of my growing up years. She and my mom were great neighbors and friends, always helping each other out, but never prying or gossiping.We always felt very lucky to have you guys as neighbors. Although she was a religious Christian, your mom never made us feel different and we were always welcomed into the Fox home.Although Celia now lives in Israel and I am in Baltimore, we send you our love and share a sense of loss at Stella's passing.

“ To all the Fox boys and their families -- Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. We have fond memories of our family gatherings at Sherwood Island and back yard picnics at your house - swimming in the pool and playing games. Your mom was a sweet and kind soul. She always wrote a little note in her Christmas cards right through last year. As you may recall, John's father and your father worked together at the Greenwich Post Office. I'm sure your mom has left you with many wonderful memories. We will treasure those she left with us. So sad to lose a mother. ”
