“ To the Doucette Family - I was deeply saddened to recently hear of Sue's passing. She was a beautiful spirited woman loaded with personality. Her smile could light up the moon and she always kept me laughing. We dated for a while back in the mid 70's and those memories will always hold a place in my heart. Rest Peacefully Sue!

“ Dear Doucette Family, Fun early days with Sue, Pam, Alan & Bobby. Growing up and going separate ways to live in San Diego and Orlando but Facebook kept us together. Nonetheless, Susan reached out to me like an angel when we lost our baby sister Annette. I became her 'twin' and she held me tight. I do miss her....and her gorgeous smile, zest for life and beautiful heart of gold as her sweet ways remains in my heart.

“ Susan...It's funny that when a friend passes, suddenly all arguments, disagreements....they all disappear from ones memory and only the good times and being together as friends is what's left in ones mind.....that is how it should be....I am sadly realizing that life is VERY short. I am sad that you left us too soon. God rest your soul.
