“ Aunt Terry, I know I haven't seen you since I was about 16 years old but I remember you like it was yesterday. Sitting around the diner table or living room listening to the adults talking and joking. You had a laugh that filled Grandma's house from corner to corner. You were such a pleasure to be around. A wonderful Aunt and a great person. The few times I had the chance to talk to you on the phone brought back many memories of those great family days when I got to visit New York. This is a great loss to the Ferrari and Cagiao families. My sincere condolences to my cousins. You all have my love and and sympathy for your loss. Rest in Peace Aunt Terry your with Uncle Bernie now.
