“ I am saddened to learn of Msgr. Ted's passing so long after the fact. He was a beloved friend of our family, and a man more reflective of Heaven and joy than anyone I can think of. God bless his soul and may his loved ones be comforted.

“ Just became aware of Ted's return to the Father from whence he came. He was always a welcomed guest at St. Andrew rectory during his visits to Colchester while I was pastor there. His work with Jerry Lowney and the Hatian Health Foundation is legendary. He forever impacted our little corner of Connecticut. Condolences to the family.
May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

“ We have known Monsignor for over 25 years now. We first meet him in Rancho Village mobile home park in Largo,Fl. He would say Mass each Saturday evening during the winter months. We helped him by setting up the Mass and taking it down every weekend. At times we had over 250 people attend. Everyone loved Monsignor!

Monsignor would visit us in Florida and Indiana. We had the pleasure to do many wonderful things with him. His first boat ride, motorcycle ride and a lot of dancing and basketball games. He said Mass at the churches in Indiana many times. We had a picnic that 150 people attended for him. He knew everyone of them.

He will be missed by many. Our Deepest Sympathy, Bob & Maria Gray

“ We were so very Blessed to have known Monsignor. He was a gentle giant, and loved by all. He became apart of our life, swimming daily with my husband, celebrating all his birthdays at a fun party, being it at Kumo’s Restaurant, with his swim team, at Kijek’s for his 95th, and finally at Wavenly to celebrate a life well lived at 97. He sure will be missed in our life as with so many other people who’s lives he has touched.
Our Deepest Sympathy to Monsignor’s wonderful nieces and nephews, which he so dearly loved.
Unfortunately we will be unable to attend Monsignor’s funeral, but our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
With Deepest Sympathy, Mary Ann & Paul Deary
