“ Tío querido! Gracias por distinguirme como Una de sus sobrinas favoritas! Tengo muchas memorias de usted y la que más atesoro es su gesto de venir a mi casa a visitarme siempre que venía al país! Sus chistes; su jocosidad; su forma particular de ver la vida me cautivaron! Extrañare su esencia! Mi esperanza es volverlo a ver en las mansiones del Cielo algún día y que cuando allá se pase lista ahí responderemos! Descanse en Paz! Porfavor mándele un Besito a mi papi! 🕊️🕊️

“ Every encounter with Tío Tomás was filled with laughter and smiles. He had a keen ability to come up with the most outrageous and funny unexpected remarks that left you laughing out loud. I remember so many of his jokes and interactions with my father, Papo, his eldest brother, their “back and forth” conversations and how they made each other laugh. How when my father was very sick, Tio Tomas visited him before his passing and chose to focus not on the disease, but in spending quality time with his eldest brother, simple times like napping and sharing meals and a little banter. Now they’re together again, big bro and little bro with our grandparents. Tío Tomás’ memory will always bring gratitude and joy, because he was a joyful man always. My wishes for peace and consolation to the family. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
