

Val Corley

January 24, 1957 - September 21, 2017

Val Corley-Wezenski, a lifelong resident of Stamford, CT, born January 24, 1957, passed away on September 21, 2017. Daughter of Bernice Baskin, she was the beloved wife of John Wezenski of Milford, CT, mother of the late Terence Corley and Candace Corley Vaccarella of Alexandria, VA, and grandmother of Shane Vaccarella. Val leaves behind three sisters, Wanda Baskin of Stamford, CT, Linda Baskin of Waterbury, CT, and Yolanda Baskin, of Stamford, CT and two brothers, Victor T. Corley, of Norwalk, CT and David Baskin, of Stamford, CT. She worked at the US Postal Service for twenty-two years before retiring. Prior to the U.S. Post Office, she spent 13 loving years teaching preschoolers. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, always willing to lend a helping hand. During her final months, nothing gave her greater joy than watching her first grandson grow up. A memorial service for immediate family will be held at Bosak Funeral Home in Stamford, CT. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made in her honor to Yale New Haven Pediatric Specialty Center. If you would like to leave a message of condolence for the family you may visit the funeral home's online guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or on Facebook at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

“ Val: I will miss you dearly my best friend we last spoke September 16, 2017 you were so full of life. I will miss our long talks and knowing every time John whisked you away the happiness in your voice the times you and John came to visit Baltimore and stayed with me will always be ever lasting memories. Most of all I'm so happy God brought you and John together I have never seen two most loving people that made each others world so complete God makes no mistakes he only takes his Angles who are ready. John thank you for showing Val seventeen years of unconditional love dedication and devotion. Love Always
