“ Every memory I have of Valerie starts and ends with laughter, no matter what we were talking about in between. We shared our love of writing, our memories, our devotion to our families, and a love of food. I'm grateful for having had her company, I'm grateful for having been immersed in the joy she shared, I'm grateful for her wisdom, and I am oh so grateful for the laughter. May your memories of Valerie be a comfort and a blessing. Sincerely, Elizabeth Hilts

“ Valerie I remember our last conversation. I was at a point of confusion and your wisdom helped me to make a proper choice in the decision I had to make. I truly appreciate all our talks on and off of FB. I will miss you my dear friend. I love you and give Darryl a hug for me when she greets you at the Pearly Gates. God called home another one of his BEAUTIFUL angels. Your work here in this earthly realm is done. And the Father said as he embraced you, Well done my daughter, well done!! SIP Dear Sister.

“ Valerie, you did it as you did everything your way! Never complained just did the babysitting, editing my thesis, writing, sharing thoughts, emotions, political discourse, likes, dislikes..yes you did! And I will miss that and more! Full of life, love and laughter! You have truly left your legacy and I will always hold you and Darryl in a special corner of my heart!! Though I am sad, I know as well as others that you fought hard as well as long and I thank God that He loaned you to me for just enough of a time that I can look back and say, that you did everything your way!💕💕💕💕😭

I was deeply saddened to hear of Valerie's passing. But I will remember her as a strong, vital woman of great courage, heart, humor and a deep sense of humanity. I was humbled to know her in the Fairfield MFA program, and found her to be a passionate student, a committed writer, and a wonderful colleague. She represented the best of Fairfield's program and contributed to it greatly. I will miss her but recall, with tenderness and affection, her wonderful spirit.
