“ To all my cousins in the Czarnecki-Kasiewicz families, my sincere sympathy and prayers at this difficult time. Even though it has been many many years, and I don't know many of you younger people today, I can remember so many of the "old timers" in the family. I remember Edward, Sr in his police uniform, Pete Kasiewicz talking with my dad at the Pulaski Club, and your beloved mom, Veronica. Now they have all passed on, to the eternal reward the Lord has promised to all of us. My deepest sympathy to you all, and know that this Sunday I will offer my Mass for the repose of her soul. May she rest in peace!
