“ I worked with Vilma many years ago at the Roger Smith Hotel. She was one of the calmest, happiest people there always had a smile for everyone. And I remember how happy she was when she was pregnant and still continued to work, something that women didn't do back in the 60's. I'm glad that she had a long and happy life filled with children and grandchildren. May she rest in peace and may all of her family find peace and happiness in their memories of her
