

Virginia Hayes

December 4, 1949 - January 29, 2026

Virginia Elizabeth Hayes was the only child of Carlo and Edith Piacentile. She was born on December 4, 1949 and spent the first 68 years of her life on Lurting Avenue in the Bronx before moving to Stamford, CT.

Virginia held a firm belief in the value of family throughout her life. She went to Catholic schools for the first 12 years of her education, and then attended the Fashion Institute of Technology and graduated with an Associate Degree. In 1975, Virginia married John Hayes and spent the next 50 years being John's wife, partner, and best friend. John and Virginia had two sons in 1979 and 1981, John and Steven, in whom they were most proud.

Virginia encountered several medical issues for the past several years, including AML (cancer), against which she fought a valiant battle for 18 months before ultimately succumbing on January 29, 2026. Virginia is survived by her devoted husband, her two sons, and her four grandchildren, Madison, Ryan, Alison and Jack. Virginia doted on her grandchildren, and loved nothing more than spending time with (and spoiling) them.

Virginia will be remembered as a warm, caring, and loving person. She will truly be missed, but will be in heaven looking down upon us and sending us her love.

“ My sincere condolences to her beautiful family. I have so many wonderful memories of my beautiful friend. We worked together for many years and we had a lot of laughs and we had serious moments also. One of the funny stories with Ginny was when we were at work I came to the front desk and she looks so serious and I said to her what are you doing and she said Insurance and I started to laugh and she said what are you laughing about? I said you're not doing Insurance you're playing solitaire on the computer. Her face turned red she said no I'm not. I said yes you are and I was hysterical laughing. She said how would you know I said because I could see the reflection in the window behind you. Well, needless to say she burst out laughing and we were hysterical till the tears were coming down our faces. I used to call her captain Stubing and she used to chase me because she would wear this beautiful outfit It look like a sailor suit and I said to her you belong on the Love Boat. I can go on and on about stories with Ginny. She was such a wonderful person with a good heart always willing to help and be there for others. She will be missed, but never forgotten. I love you, girl you rest in peace. You'll always have that special place in my heart. 🥺🌹🙏❤️🙏

It's a small world. Our Bronx friends, especially our St. Catharine sisters, have a strong bond!! Although Ginny & I were not best friends in HS, we remained connected through our mutual best friend, Robin Sampogna. It was always fun meeting up with Ginny at events!! My SCA sister!! May she rest in heavenly peace! 🙏🙏❤️❤�
