

Walter Michalsky

November 19, 1925 - May 11, 2017

Walter Michalsky, affectionately known as “Lodge”, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 11, 2017 after a brief illness at Stamford Hospital with his loving family at his side. Walter is survived by his beloved wife of 68 years, Regina Michalsky (Kaminski), a daughter; Stephanie Kochenash, a son; Walter Michalsky, two grandsons; Stephen and David, and many nieces, nephews and extended family. “ Walt and family. We were saddened to read about your father in Sunday's paper. He was a good man that made a big impression on those he met over the years. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ Very sad to read this today. I remember he attended my dad's service back in 2005 at Turn of River Church, as they were old family friends from waaay back, and we talked a lot about the old days. Mr. Michalsky still had that same smile! Thank you for your service to our country and my sincere sympathies to all of the family.
