“ We never met Sister Wright directly. But indirectly met her through one of her sons- Joseph Wright. We can tell that she was a caring, faithful, hardworking and loving person. It’s been said, “what’s in the cake is in the crumb”. Sister Wright is the cake and her children are the crumbs. The love in action of Brother Joseph & Sister Jacqui Wright towards their mother/mother-in-law until the end will always be etched in our hearts. She always had a wise word to deposit into your spirit! I always walked away from our conversations feeling like I've learned something that I could apply to my every day life and also teach others what I've learned from the Woman of God!

God be with you Godmother, Sissy, and family during this time of grief! May God continue to comfort you like only He can. I love you all!

Granny will be missed!
