“ Dear Stephen, Kathy and Susan - mom and I are so sad about the passing of your dear mom. I will never forget our days at Holy Name School when our mom's and dad's gave so much of themselves to provide us with all the cherished moments of childhood memories. And all that your parents did for the church will never be forgotten, either. They are both angels looking down on us with heavenly blessings. Miss them so much. Elizabeth McCauley

“ Stephen, Kathi and Sue, we are so sorry for your loss of Aunt Winnie. I know you will keep her alive in your hearts, and that she is laughing and teasing with the "gang" in heaven. I can almost hear that polka music playing again as we watch them all dance around the houses! We were so lucky to have grown up with a loving, caring, funny, loud, and happy group of relatives. Those parties live on with us. May Winnie be forever content and happy to be with Henry again. She is missed, but never forgotten. Hugs and love.
